God cannot be separated from his word, or go back on his word. Unfortunately for us, we tend to get separated from our words. We sometimes agree to do things for people and then we later have to back out. God's word is eternal. Because God himself is eternal, there is a real sense in which he cannot speak a word that is not eternal. That is ...

This story of a woman with sixteen personalities, purportedly based on real life, hooked me at the time of reading it. It was one of the factors getting me interested in "pop" psychology. Now I hear that it has been challenged (like so many similar books), but that does not take away from its fascination.

In popular myth, Christopher Columbus is the very symbol of European greed and genocidal imperialism. In reality, he was a dedicated Christian concerned first and foremost with serving God and his fellow man. Peering into the future, Columbus (1451-1506) could not have anticipated the ingratitude and outright contempt shown by modern man toward his discovery and exploration of the New World.
